ST advised that two professional companies advised that we should commence with a survey before taking further steps. They both agreed that action was not urgent.

One survey quote of £1850 plus VAT had been received. Another company, Mercer Tree Services, is about to submit a quote. It is anticipated that the quote will be considerably lower than the first quote. On that basis Mercer will be asked to proceed.

1447. Reports from County and District Councillors

None.

1448. Closure of meeting.

There being no further matters to discuss the Chairman declared the meeting closed at 20.45.
